Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America;
from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.
BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it would be happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive posdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, arthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

NIGHT.

Why burn on high the stars at night?
Why lends the moon her silver ray?
But just to tinge the gloom with light,
And thus eclipse the charms of day.

See, lovely o'er God's footstool, glows
The spangled mantle of his love;
Its gems, bright worlds, whose lustre throws
On earth, the smile from heaven above.

The moon, fair empress of the night,
Is as a jewel fitly hung,
To sparkle on the mantle bright
Of HIM whom seraph Angels sung.

See the wide lake—no gale is nigh—
Its surface smooth—it lies at rest;
Reflects the azure of the sky,
And wears its stars upon its breast.

Oh Night! I love thy hallow'd peace—
I love to rove beneath thy shade
When bustling scenes of day do cease,
When thousands still in sleep are laid.

I love to view the arching sky—
I love to fancy spirits there—
I love to think those spirits nigh.
Spirits of friends, and I their care.

Oh Night! I love thy hallowed peace—
I love thy calm, thy soothing power;
And till my heart's last throb shall cease,
With joy I'll hail thy silent hour.

FOREIGN COMPENDIUM.

Jacob's Pillow, which is under the Coronation Chair, in Westminster Abbey, Eng. has lately been the subject of much public attention. It has long been asserted that it was the stone on which the father of Israel rested his head at Luza; but how it came in those islands remains to be explained.

The new gold coin, the Sovereign, is fast departing from England to France.

The arch dutchess of Parma, wife of Napoleon Bonaparte, is expected to visit England in the course of the summer.

The habeas corpus suspension act has been repealed.

The wager of Battle is not yet determined in England. The plea of the wager of battle has been made by Thornton—the counter plea was, that the defendant was unworthy. The replication has been brought forward, affirming the innocence of the defendant, and detailing the whole case; and the appellant Wm. Ashford has put in his answer to the replication, the substance of which is, that the matters in manner and form contained in the replication of Thornton are insufficient according to law, and Ashford prayed the judgment of court that Thornton might not be permitted to wage battle. The defendant joined issue on this demurrer, and said, that the replication to the counter plea was sufficient in law for him to wage battle, which he was willing to verify and prove as the court shall direct. The 16th of April was the day assigned by the court to determine the question.

Interior of Africa.—A letter from Sierra Leone mentions the return to that place of the British scientific expedition for exploring the interior of Africa—They were completely unsuccessful, having advanced only about 150 miles into the interior, from Rio Nunez. Their progress was there stopped by a chief of the country; and after unavailing endeavors, for the space of four months, to obtain liberty to proceed, they abandoned the enterprise, and returned. Nearly all the animals died. Several officers died—and, what is remarkable, but one private, besides one drowned, out of about 200. Capt. Campbell died two days after their return to Rio Nunez, and was buried with another officer, in the same spot where Major Peddie and one of his officers were buried, on their advance.—The remnant of the party were at Sierra Leone, September 4, and proposed making a further attempt

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Tuesday, April 7, 1818.

The subject which has for some time occasioned so much painful speculation to some, and such fond tickling hopes to others—I mean whether the new public offices were or were not to be erected near the capital—was decided in a committee of the whole on the bills for erecting additional buildings for the accommodation of the executive departments—for making appropriations for the public buildings—and for furnishing the capitol and the President's house. In the discussions on this bill, various amendments were proposed. That for erecting the new public offices on Capitol Hill, was one of them, and was negatived without a division.

The zeal of the PROPERTY PATRIOTS on both sides, (I mean out of doors) was quickened into more than ordinary animation on this point. I am glad that the house treated the proposition with such manifest slight.

Thirty thousand dollars were appropriated for furnishing the Representative Chamber and Committee Rooms, by 74 votes to 68.

Thirty thousand dollars was then assigned for furnishing the President's house, but not till the members of the house had gravely shown their accurate knowledge of upholstery expenditure by some proposing and the rest negativing a proposition for 40,789 dolls.—by 90 votes to 52. These are what an upholsterer by trade would call very nice calculations, nice enough to baffle the experienced skill of the sons of the tacking hammer themselves. How our country's representatives come by that knowledge in mahogany and hangings, collectively, which individually, the chance is, not one in a hundred possess, is a question of curious solution.

Then came the question about the sum to be allowed for offices to the President's house, and this was tossed about through a variety of sums from 9867 dollars down to 7000, at which it stuck—and 7000 was inserted. I should like to see the calculations of the several propounders set down in black and white—they might be of use to future state architects. "Every thing in this life," says Yorick, "is big with mirth, if we had only the sagacity to discern it."

The following then were the appropriations:

For finishing the wings of the capitol	$80,000
Towards proceeding with the centre building	100,000
Offices to the President's house	7,000
Furnishing represent'ves chamber	30,000
Do. senate chamber, &c.	20,000
Furnishing the President's house	30,000

From the Norfolk Herald, April 1.

Among the vessels which went up the bay on Sunday afternoon was the brig Huron, Martin, 16 days from Havana, with a cargo of molasses and sugar.—Capt. Appleby, of this town, came passenger in the H. and has come up in the sloop Gen. Swift, from North Carolina. Capt. A. states that about 8 days previous to his sailing, despatches had been received by the governor from the government of Old Spain, instructing him to close the port of Havana against all nations indiscriminately; which order it was expected would be carried into execution, in a few days, as the governor only waited the arrival of the next packet for a duplicate of his instructions.—Capt. A. further states, the British government, determined to enforce their measures for putting a stop to the African slave trade, had sent two agents on that business, who had arrived at Havana a few days before he left there. It was thought that this step, coupled with the new order of Ferdinand, would produce something like a revolution at Havana.—The Buenos Ayrean squadron, was still cruizing close in with the Moro and blockading the harbor. The sickness had again made its appearance. There was but little alteration in the market, American produce dull. Land do scarce and high. [Steam Boat Books.

SKIRMISH WITH THE INDIANS.

We learn that on the 18th instant a party of 34 of the Telfair militia, 17 were mounted, and 17 on foot, under major Cawthorn, passed over the Ocmulgee in pursuit of a party of Indians. The order of march was, that if they fell in with Indians in a thicket, or advantageous ground, a retreat would be ordered, and to be continued until they gained suitable ground to combat with the enemy. They met the Indians, 50 or 60 in number, in a thicket, and the retreat was ordered by the major—the horsemen continued the retreat. On suitable ground, Mitchel Griffin, who commanded the footmen, ordered them to face about and fight the Indians. Griffin was immediately killed, and 4 others fell dead, and 2 were wounded. The Indian loss is reported to be about 10 killed, including their chief, whose body and that of the other Indians was found after the action. It was a drawn battle. The horsemen under major Cawthorn, it is reported, did not return to the aid of their countrymen who fought on foot. This skirmish, no doubt, is the one in which it was stated that general Jackson was engaged.

CHURCH ROBBERY.

Within a few weeks, an infamous crime has been committed, and with such impunity, that the daring offender considered himself free from detection. On Wednesday evening last, about 8 o'clock, the watchmen met a colored man, in the south western district of the city, with a bundle on his back, and questioning him as to whom it belonged, quickly discovered that he had been committing a theft—upon threatening detention, the mulatto, who is a strong, athletic man, made a powerful resistance—but the watchmen conquered and subdued him. His bundle, upon examination, proved to contain the velvet and other ornaments of the New Jerusalem Church, in 12th street, which he had been rifling—the seats were all cut up, and the valuable property, which he thought fit to remove, placed in an adjoining yard of plaiste of Paris. There can be little doubt but he is the same villain who plundered St. Peter's and Christ Churches, for the detection of whom, one hundred dollars reward has been offered. [Poulson's Am. Daily Ad.

Extract of a letter from St. Louis, dated 22d February, 1818,

"There has been a great dust kicked up in the bank of St. Louis—The former cashier has been removed from office, and the directors elected another cashier, who did not please some of the minority of the directors; they immediately resigned; the clerk, perhaps thinking himself entitled to the office by seniority, resigned also. These resignations produced a general discontent, which caused the shutting of the bank; it afterwards became a party dispute, and they were near proceeding to very dangerous measures, when one party bound the other over to the peace. I believe they are now about to compromise, when the bank will resume its operations. The circumstance has produced a considerable depreciation of its paper and stock, but I think if they succeed in adjusting the difference, that no very serious injury will be sustained. Their paper is now passing at par without much difficulty. The bank is not yet opened, but probably will be in a few days.

Liverpool, Jan. 26.

DEATH OF VIZIER ALLY.

Among the deaths mentioned in the Calcutta papers, we find that of Vizier Ally, once nabob of Oude; but, being deposed by the East India Company, was subsequently, and in consequence of the treacherous murder of Mr. Cherry and others, at Benares, confined for life in a room, made to resemble an iron cage, in Fort William, where he lingered out an imprisonment of 17 years, 3 months and 4 days. He died in May last, at the age of only 36. As a relation of the vicissitudes of fortune which this young man experienced, with the circumstance of long imprisonment, will prove interesting to the reader, we shall here subjoin it—

Vizier Ally was the adopted son of Asuf-ud-Dowlah, late nabob of Oude.—His mother was the wife of a florish, (a menial servant, of low description, employed in India in keeping the metallic furniture of a house clean.) His reputed father, Asuf ud-Dowlah, was a wealthy and eccentric prince. Having succeeded to the musnud (throne) of Oude by the assistance of the East India Company, he professed great partiality to the English. Mild in manners, polite and affable in his conduct, he possessed no great mental powers—his heart was good, considering his education, which instilled the most despotic ideas. He was fond of lavishing his treasures on gardens, palaces, horses, elephants, European guns, jewels, and mirrors. He expended every year about 200,000*l* in English manufactures. This nabob had more than 100 gardens, 20 palaces, 1200 elephants, 3000 fine saddle horses, 1500 double barrel guns, 1700 lustres, 30,000 shades of various forms and colors, several hundred large mirrors, grandoles and clocks—some of the latter were very curious, richly set with jewels, having figures in continual movement, and playing tunes every hour—two of these clocks cost him 30,000*l*. Without taste and judgment, he was extremely solicitous to possess all that was elegant and rare—he had instruments and machines of every art and science, but he knew none; and his museum was so ridiculously disposed, that a wooden cuckoo clock was placed close to a superb time piece which cost the price of a diadem; and a valuable landscape of Claude Lorraine suspended near a board painted with ducks and drakes. He sometimes gave a dinner to ten or twelve persons sitting at their ease in a carriage drawn by elephants. His haram contained above 500 of the greatest beauties of India, immured in high walls, which they were never to leave, except on their biers. He had an immense number of domestic servants and a very large army, besides being fully protected from hostile invasion by the Company's subsidiary forces, for which he paid 500,000*l* per annum. His jewels amounted to about eight millions sterling. Amidst this precious treasure, he might be seen for several hours every day handling them as a child does his toys. Asuf had no legitimate children, and it was doubted whether he had any natural ones. He was in the habit, whenever he saw a pregnant woman whose appearance struck his fancy, to invite her to the palace to lie in; and several women of this description were delivered there, and among the number was the mother of Vizier Ally. Several children so delivered were brought up and educated in the palace.

The sprightliness of Vizier Ally, while yet an infant, so entirely engrossed the affections of the old nabob, that he determined to adopt him. In conformity with this resolution, the youth received an education suitable to a prince who was destined to succeed to the musnud. He is said, however, to have developed at this period a propensity to delight in the sufferings of the brute creation. The affection of the old nabob towards his adopted son still increasing, he lavished upon him every mark of regard.

At 13 his marriage took place. To give an idea of the splendor, which attached to his youth, and from which he subsequently fell, the following account of his nuptials is extracted from Forbe's "Oriental Memoirs:"

"The wedding of Vizier Ally was celebrated at Lucknow, in 1795, and was one of the most magnificent in modern times. The Nabob had his tents pitched on the plains, near the city of Lucknow; among the number were two remarkably large, made of large cotton cloth, lined with the finest English broadcloth, cut in stripes of different colors, with cords of silk and cotton. These two tents cost five lacks of rupees, or above fifty thousand pounds sterling; they were each 120 feet long, 60 broad; and the poles about 60 feet high: the walls of the tents were ten feet high; part of them were cut into lattice work for the women of the nabob's seraglio, and those of the principal nobility, to see through. His highness was covered with jewels to the amount, at least, of two millions sterling. From thence we removed to the shumeena, which was illuminated by two hundred elegant girandoles from Europe, as many glass shades with wax candles, and several hundred flambeaux; the glare and reflection was dazzling and offensive to the sight. When seated on the extensive canopy, above a hundred dancing girls, richly dressed, went through their elegant, but rather lascivious, dances and motions, and sung some soft airs of the country, chiefly Persic and Hindoo Persic.

"About seven o'clock, the bridegroom Vizier Ally, the young Nabob, made his appearance, so absurdly loaded with jewels, that he could scarcely stagger under the precious weight. The bridegroom was about thirteen years of age, the bride ten; they were both of a dark complexion, and not handsome.

"From the shumeena we proceeded on elephants to an extensive and beautiful garden, about a mile distant. The procession was grand beyond description; it consisted of about twelve hundred elephants, richly caparisoned, drawn up in a regular line like a regiment of soldiers. About a hundred elephants in the centre had houdahs, or castles, covered with silver; in the midst of these appeared the nabob, mounted on an uncommonly large elephant, within a houdah, covered with gold, richly set with precious stones.—The elephant was caparisoned with cloth of gold. On his right hand was Mr. Geo. Johnstone, the British resident at the court of Lucknow; on his left the young bridegroom: the English gentlemen and ladies, and the native nobility, were intermixed on the right and left. On both sides of the road, from the tents to the garden, were raised artificial scenery of bamboo work, very high, representing bastions, arches, minarets, and towers, covered with lights in glass lamps, which made a grand display. On each side of the procession, in front of the line of elephants, were dancing girls, superbly dressed, (on platforms supported and carried by bearers) who danced as we went along. These platforms consisted of a hundred on each side of the procession, all covered with gold and silver cloths, with two girls and two musicians at each platform.

"The ground from the tents to the garden, forming the road on which we moved, was inlaid with fire works; at every step of the elephants the earth burst before us, and threw up artificial stars in the heavens, to emulate those created by the hand of Providence; besides innumerable rockets, and many hundred wooden shells that burst in the air, and shot forth a thousand fiery serpents; these, winding through the atmosphere, illuminated the sky, and aided by the light of the bamboo scenery, turned a dark night into a bright day.—The procession moved on very slowly, to give time for the fire works to go off—The whole of this grand scene was further lighted with above three thousand flambeaux, carried by men hired for the occasion. In this manner we moved on in stately pomp to the garden, which, though only a mile off, we took two hours to reach. When we arrived at the garden gate we descended from the elephants and entered the garden, illuminated by innumerable transparent lamps or lanterns, of various colors, suspended to the branches of the trees. In the centre of the garden was a large edifice, to which we ascended, and were introduced into a grand saloon, adorned with girandoles and pendant lustres of English manufacture, lighted with wax candles.—Here we had an elegant and sumptuous collation of European and India dishes, with wines, fruits, and sweetmeats; at the same time about a hundred dancing girls sung their sprightly airs and performed their native dances.

"Thus passed the time until dawn, when we all returned to our respective homes, delighted and wonder-struck with the enchanting scene, which surpassed in splendor every entertainment of the kind beheld in this country. The affable nabob slightly observed, with a little Asiatic vanity, that such a spectacle was never before seen in India, and never would be seen again. The whole expence of this marriage feast, which was repeated for three successive nights in the same manner, cost upwards of 800,000*l* sterling."

When the Vizier Ally was recognized by Asuf as his successor to the throne, great opposition was manifested by the old nabob's family. He was, however, on the death of the latter, upheld by the English government, and placed on the throne. An adopted child, by the Mahomedan law, is entitled to all the privileges of legitimate birth. Vizier Ally, after being placed on the throne, shewed a turbulent, restless and infringing temper, and broke his faith with the English government; the consequence of which was, his being deposed from the Musnud, and Sadu Ally, the brother of the late nabob, was placed on it. A pension was assigned to Vizier Ally, of two lacks of rupees per annum about twenty-five thousand pounds; but it was considered necessary that he should reside near the presidency, that he might be the more under the eye of government. He in consequence proceeded from Lucknow to Benares, where Mr. Cherry, the company's resident, was to make arrangements for his proceeding to the presidency.—Shortly after his arrival at Benares, Mr. Cherry invited him to breakfast. He came, attended by a large armed retinue. It had been previously intimated to Mr. Cherry that his appearance was hostile, and that he ought to be on his guard; but he disregarded the caution. Vizier Ally complained much of the company's treatment of him, and in fine, at a signal made by him, several of his attendants rushed in, and cut Mr. Cherry and his assistant, Mr Graham, to pieces. They then went away in the intention of proceeding to the house of Mr. Davis, another European gentleman, holding a high situation under government, with the view of massacreing him also; but fortunately he got some intimation of his danger before they arrived, got his family to the top of the house and posted himself at the summit of a narrow circular stone stair case. Here the ruffians pursued him but with a hogspeare he defended himself for a considerable length of time, killing several of his assailants, which in a manner blocked up the passage, till at length he was rescued by a party of the company's troops, stationed at Benares, which came to his assistance. The followers of Vizier Ally, killed another European private gentleman residing at Benares, exclusive of the two public officers above mentioned. Vizier Ally made his escape into the territory of the Rajah of Berar, a powerful and independent chief, who refused to give him up, unless under a promise of his life being spared. This the English government considered it expedient to accede to, and he was accordingly given up and brought to Calcutta, and confined in the garrison of Fort William, in a kind of iron cage; and here he died after an imprisonment of 17 years and odd months, as before mentioned.

Re-sale of Valuable Lands,

FOR READY MONEY

THE terms of a former sale not having been complied with, in pursuance of a decree of the United States' circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, directing a re-sale of the tract of land called the Glebe Lands, in case the terms of the former sale should not be complied with, we, the subscribers, shall, as commissioners under the decree of the circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, expose to sale for ready money at public auction, on Saturday the 18th day of April next, on the premises, that desirable Tract of Land, in the county of Alexandria commonly called the Glebe Lands, situate about 2 miles from Georgetown ferry and 7½ from Alexandria, containing 566 acres, by survey;—one half of which is well timbered with oak, hickory and chesnut. It is handsomely situated, good water, and a fine young orchard of the best selected apples and cherries. The land will be sold agreably to survey, more or less. The title papers may be seen at any time on application to the subscribers. The sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

March 19 A18

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, Fairfax.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER.

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype plate, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samue Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water.

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewett.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
